.. RESPONDENTS

This Contempt case coming on for hearing and upon perusing the Case and Affidavit filed herein and the order of the High Court dated: 24-02-2004 and made herein and upon hearing the arguments of Mr. G. Vidyasagar, Advocate for petitioner, and of Mr. K. Srinivasa Murthy, Advocate for respondent No. 2, the Court made the following.

ORDER:

" A detailed counter is filed in this contempt case stating that the petitioner is in illegal and forcible occupation of company's quarter and this contempt petition is filed only to threaten the respondents for recognizing his illegal occupation of the quarter. The petitioner has taken law into his hands while occupying the quarter illegally and even the contempt case is nothing but abuse of the process of the Court. But nowhere in the counter it is stated that the respondents have not disconnected the power supply to the quarter, even if it is in the illegal occupation of the petitioner. Therefore, the respondents are given one more opportunity to comply with the orders for restoring the power supply to the said quarter. However, this will not preclude the management from taking any proper action to evict the petitioner from the quarter.

Post on 1.12.2004 and if the power supply is not restored to the quarter in question in the meanwhile, the respondent shall be present in person before this Court on 01-12-2004 at 10.30 A.M. "
